DEMOCRATS FEEL OUT REPUBLICAN PACT SENTIMENT

More Than Twenty G. O. P. Senators Want Qualification

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Negotiations between Democratic and Republican senators looking to ratification of the peace treaty with reservations reached a more definite stage today while President Wilson and the foreign relations committee were getting together on unprecedented measures to give the public all the details of the irregular discussion of the treaty next Tuesday at the White house.

Must Be Qualified.

Democratic leaders feeling out sentiment on the Republican side were told that the treaty never could be ratified without qualification but that more than twenty Republicans wanted to see it accepted in the near future with reservations along the line of those agreed on by seven senators of that party some days ago.

This information came from members of the group of seven after completion of a poll begun Wednesday on receipt of the first Democratic overtures. The twenty needed by the Democrats to make the necessary ratification majority of sixty-four had not accepted the proposed reservation program in exact form, it was asserted, but had given their assent to its general provisions.

Afterward Senator Hitchcock, the Democratic leader went to the White house and is understood to have laid the whole senate situation before the president. He made no formal announcement after the conference, but indicated that the administration's stand for unreserved ratification remained unchanged. Some of the seven reservation Republicans, however, insist that they have had information assuring Democratic assent to their program.

Lodge Shows New Reservations.

A new draft of reservations was shown to several Republicans during the day by Senator Lodge, the Republican leader. It is understood to include a provision that appointment of the American representative on the league council must have senate approval. The other four provisions relate to the Monroe Doctrine, withdrawal from membership, jurisdiction over purely domestic questions and the right of congress to declare war under article ten of the league covenant.

Plans for the White house conference Tuesday were virtually completed during the day with an agreement that both White house and committee stenographers should be present and that a transcript of the discussions should be issued to the press. Chairman Lodge also gave his assent to the presence of newspaper correspondents at the meeting, but said that was a question for the president to decide. The proposal that stenographers be present came from the president in reply to a request that the committee members should not be restrained to secrecy about the discussions.

Wilson to Provide Stenographer.

Mr. Wilson said he would provide a stenographer and suggested that the committee also bring one.

Altho it began discussion of proposed amendments to the treaty today, the committee decided to vote on none of them until it had talked to the president. There will be no meeting tomorrow and most of next week will be devoted to hearing the five additional witnesses summoned yesterday.

The question of how soon the committee would report to the senate was one of the questions most earnestly discussed in the many conferences held among senators during the day. While the Democratic leaders said they believed 20 Republicans would exert their influence for early committee action it was made clear by the reservation Republicans that they had not promised any Republican votes for a motion to take the treaty out of the committee's hands.

After his White house conference Senator Hichcock said the committee might report within ten days or two weeks. He made it clear that getting the treaty into the senate as soon as practicable was the present concern of the administration.

Man Builds Two Mills With His Convincing Way

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—With the aid of twenty-five suits of clothes to give appearance of prosperity, a chauffeur and touring car, and a "convincing way" with business men, Herman J. Blumsonn president of the Star Cereal & Milling company and president of the Jewish Educational alliance, accused of defrauding five of the largest banks in Chicago and Milwaukee of $300,000, was able to build two mills here costing more than $375,000. This information was obtained late today when the police investigated the activities of Blumson, whom they believe has fled to either Europe or South Africa.

At the time Blumson owned the unusual number of suits he lived in a $5 a week room, the landlady of his rooming house said, explaining that his prosperity was all in the matter of dress.

Blumson's career in Chicago reads like the chapter from a novel. He came here recently from South Africa and for a time peddled rugs on the street. He soon found that he could make a better showing in other lines and bought and completed a mill costing $100,000 with no securities except his ability to convince business men that he "had a number of government contracts."

Later he built a new mill at a cost of about $275,000. To do this he needed more credits so he went about getting more suits of clothes.

According to published reports of his activities Blumson received letters of thanks from both William Hale Thompson, mayor of Chicago, and Robert M. Sweitzer, the mayor's opponent at the last election. Sweitzer wrote Blumson that "if he had as loyal support from all as he did from Blumson he would be mayor of Chicago now."

In his letter Mayor Thompson said to Blumson:

"Permit me to thank you for your loyal support in the last election."

CRIMINAL ACTION AGAINST SUGAR DEALERS LIKELY

Attorney Cites Case Where Consumers Paid Three Profits

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Criminal prosecution of sugar operators, some of whom have been taking three profits, is likely to follow the work of federal investigators in disclosing hoarders and profiteers, according to R. A. Milroy, assistant district attorney.

One Car Sold Three Times.

"Wash sales in sugar have been brought to the attention of the investigators and in some cases criminal prosecution is likely," said Mr. Milroy. "We have received evidence that one car sold three times by dealers to dealers, each taking his profit and boosting the final cost to an exorbitant figure.

"When that car of suger went on the market it was the consumer who paid all those three profits."

The work of the federal investigators branched out later today to the suburban towns, where it is claimed Chicagoans are holding their stocks in order to escape investigation.

Nine Cars Enroute

Nine carloads of government foodstuffs now are enroute to Chicago for distribution in the nine states of the seventh zone. These will be in addition to the enormous quantities in storage in the quartermasters' warehouses here. The population of the seventh zone is about 43,500,000.

Mayor Thompson will have general supervision of the distribution in the city and sales will start Monday at two department stores. A portion of the supplies for the city as well as great quantities for the remainder of the seventh zone will be distributed by parcels post.

Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, West Virginia and Wisconsin comprise the zone.

Locate Large Amount of Food.

Buffalo, Aug. 15.—Three and one half million pounds of butter and more than three million eggs have been located in cold storage warehouses here by federal investigators, according to a statement issued by the U. District Attorney for northern Ohio late today announced that a libel has been filed under the Lever act, for seizure and condemnation of 200,000 pounds of sugar belonging to the C. D. Kenny company of Baltimore and held in storage at Canton, Ohio.

Deputy Sheriff T. E. Walsh, of Cleveland, seized the sugar tonight.

Charges Moving of Food.

Columbus, O., Aug. 15.—Governor James M. Cox late today wired Assistant U. S. Attorney General Frank Davis at Washington that the Sheriff Street Warehouse & Storage Co., Cleveland, to avoid federal penalty is moving its meat products to Chicago warehouses and that records as to previous storage in Cleveland are being destroyed.

Close Co-Operation.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Close co-operation between state authorities who possess detailed information of food and price conditions and the attorney general and his sta of assistants, empowered to enforce the food control law, it being established as part of the government's fight to reduce the cost of living.

Instructions went out today from Attorney General Palmer to the two district attorneys in Ohio to proceed immediately to assist Governor Cox in the seizure of large quantities of meat, butter and eggs alleged to have been held in storage in that state for more than six to ten months, the legal limits. Criminal prosecutions will be instituted it was said, if it can be shown that the foods were held from the market for the purpose of boosting prices.

Statistics announced by the bureau of markets, showing a great increase in the amount of food held in storage, were said by Judge Ames, assistant to the attorney general in charge of enforcing the food control law to bear out the department's contention that a prime reason for enhanced prices was the holding of supplies from the market. "We are going to force these hoarders and profiteers to disgorge," Judge Ames decalred.

The agricultural committees of both senate and house continued work today on legislation asked by Attorney General Palmer extending the provisions of the food control act and giving a criminal penalty for violation of it.

Judge Ames appeared before the house committee explaining why the department of justice thought the legislation necessary.

Another witness before the house committee was John D. Hill of the national board of farm organizations who urged that farm associations should be exempt from any regulations as to the price and distribution of food products.

Warfield Rail Plan Advocates Close Their Case

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Advocates of the Warfield plan for re-organization of the railroads on a basis that would pay holders of stock a flat minimum return of six percent, closed their case today before the house interstate commerce committee.

Forney Johnston of the advisory counsel of the National Association of Owners of Railroad Securities, sponsor of the plan, and Samuel H. Beach, president of the Savings Banks association of New York, discussed its provisions at an all day session of the committee. Both declared the plan could be made effective with the return of the roads to private management without disturbing business conditions.

In denying the more or less popular belief that railroad securities were owned largely by wealthy people, Mr. Beach asserted that half the people of country were concerned directly in the welfare of the roads and demanded a law that would afford reasonable compensation on invested capital.

Beginning next week, representatives of the railway executives advisory committee will be heard, along with other witnesses who want to see the roads turned back at the end of the year, on the same basis as heretofore, except with added regulations as provided in the bill drafted by Chairman Esch.

Lowden and Mayor William Hale Thompson were asked by the Chicago real estate board, the Cook county real estate board, the Illinois Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the Illinois Society of Architects to end the building trades lock-out in Chicago which has tied up all building operations in the city and thrown 125,000 men out of employment.

The shortage of housing facilities in the city which has resulted in rents being raised 15 to 30 per cent has been rendered more acute by the building lockout and real estate men and architects declared that unless the dispute is settled immediately the city will face a serious crisis this winter.

'MORE PRODUCTION BEST PRICE REMEDY'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. — High cost of living is the result of operation of fundamental and immutable laws and lower living costs will come, to a large degree, only from operation of these natural laws, Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri declared in an address in the senate today.

Many of the remedies being proposed to reduce living costs, Senator Reed asserted, are futile because they are artificial and designed to disturb operation of natural economic tendencies. Increase in production the Missouri senator declared would be the greatest factor in reducing prices.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15. — President Wilson today vetoed the bill repealing the daylight saving law.

The president said he returned the bill without his approval with "the utmost reluctance" because he realized "the very considerable and in some respects very serious inconveniences to which the daylight saving law subjects the farmers of the country."

Declaring the pressing need of the country was for production by industry the president said he had been obliged to balance one set of disadvantages against another and decide which was the more serious for the country.

The president's message was sent to Speaker Gillett, but when an effort was made to present it to the house, Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, made a point of no quorum and the house adjourned without the message being read.

This was the second time the president had vetoed repeal of the law by which the clocks are set forward an hour on the last Sunday in March and turned back an hour on the last Sunday in October. The first veto was several weeks ago, the repeal being attached as a rider to the annual appropriation bill.

White house members and members of congress could not remember a previous instance of a president having twice vetoed the same bill.

PREDICT END OF BARTONVILLE TROUBLE TODAY

Strikers and Company Officers Confer Long Into Night

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 15.—After a day of conferences behind closed doors interrupted only by short recesses for meals, representatives of the Keystone Steel & Wire company trikers and the management ceased negotiating tonight shortly after 11 o'clock until tomorrow morning at 10:30.

As they left the city council chambers in the city hall, where the meetings were held, representatives of both sides predicted settlement of the trouble tomorrow.

Barney Cohen, state director of the department of labor, arrived in Peoria late this afternoon and announced that he would aid as a self-appointed arbitrator in aiding the company and strikers to get together. The recognition of international union officials appears to be the greatest stumbling block in the way of successful negotiations toward a settlement. The officials of the company have conceded the right of the employes to belong to a union —providing it is a shop affair— but are loath to agree to deal with the union as an organization.

Members of the union were aiding company employes in guarding the Keystone plant tonight. All of the imported strikebreakers brought into the plant Wednesday morning and the basic cause of the first clash have left the city, union leaders declare.

Brigadier General Frank S. Dickson, adjutant general for the state, declared tonight that no orders had been issued for the withdrawal of the militia troops from Peoria.

A. secretary, evangelist and traveling salesman, was sentenced today to three years and six months in Sing Sing prison where, he announced, he will take up prison reform work.

Judge Wadhams told the prisoner he would have given him five years, the maximum sentence, but deducted eighteen months, the period spent by Wilson in a Wisconsin penitentiary for a larceny which another man afterward confessed to having committed.

Wilson commenced his matrimonial career on January 22, 1900, when he married Elizabeth May Stanton of Davenport, Iowa. After three children were born he left her and in July, 1908, married May Bailey at Wytheville, W. Va. In less than a year he embarked on his third venture at Decatur, Alabama, where he married Ethel C. Moore in March 1909. Four years later he was united to Louise Davis at Detroit and a year afterwards went thru a second ceremony with Miss Davis at Pittsburgh. The following year he sought a New York bride and was married to Caroline K. Morris. He tried Philadelphia next and took Wilhelmina C. Jaggord of that city for his sixth bride in August, 1915. NOT TO ANSWER MEXICAN REPLY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—No answer to the reply of the Mexican government to the state department's warning that failure to protect Americans might result in a radical change of policy will be made. Officials explained today that the United States would wait until President Carranza displayed either unwillingness or inability to afford Americans protection before taking further action. One of the first possibilities of action would be to withdraw diplomatic representatives or even to withdraw recognition of the Carranza government. Active intervention is considered in most quarters a remote measure at this stage.

It was indicated today that the decree of forbidding exportation of war munitions to Mexico would be applied to the government as well as to individuals until further proof had been given that foreigners would receive adequate protection.

DOES NOT LOOK FOR SERIOUS CAR SHORTAGE

Hines Thinks Danger is in Exaggeration of Shortage

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Replying to a senate resolution, Director General of Railroads Hines informed the senate that while there had been some car shortage in the bituminous coal districts, he did not "anticipate any shortages in transportation which will be in any sense exceptional or abnormal or which will justify excessive prices for coal."

"The great danger that confronts the public in this matter," the director general asserted, "is that any shortage either in production by the mines or in transportation may be exaggerated so as to serve as a pretext for heavy increases in the coal prices which in my opinion are already high, generally speaking."

Senate Asked Information.

The senate resolution to which Mr. Hines replied, was introduced by Senator Pomerene, Ohio, and asked specifically for information as to the number of coal cars available and whether the coal car situation could be held responsible for any possible shortage of coal.

"There has at no time been any shortage of cars for anthracite coal loading," Mr. Hines said in reply. "Since about July 15, 1919, coincident with a marked upward trend in production there have been some shortages of cars for loading with bituminous coal, usualy in districts producing the higher grades of coal. There still exist slight surpluses of open cars in some sections, princaplly in the west."

Mr. Hines called attention to a report of the geological survey, showing that up to July 2, "the loss on account of car shortage was a very minor one and relatively much less than that from 'mine causes' and 'no market'."

May Be Production Difficulty

Mr. Hines said, however, that if the coal demand amounted to 500,000,000 tons as predicted by the National Coal association "there promises to be not only substantial difficulties in the transportation of coal but also in the production by the mines of the coal which can be transported."

"The transportation difficulties" he added, "will not be principally or primarily a shortage of cars but the fact that the entire railroad plant will be so occupied in handling a very large business of all sorts that an abnormal amount of any particular business such as coal will inevitably lead to congestion and delay."

Regarding the car supply, Mr. Hines said there were 1,067,000 open top cars in the United States which less than ten percent awaitd repairs. He estimated that about 775,000 cars were suitable for coal loading. Forty five thousand new cars, he said have been or will be placed in the service as rapidly as procticable.

The young men who went into the army service, whether they were overseas or got no further than the cantonments, are deserving of special recognition in this and other matters relating to employment.

TROUBLE WITH MINERS IS IN PROSPECT

Mr. Farrington as head of the state miners organization insists that there is no strike in progress altho several thousand miners favoring a strike have made clear their determination to cause trouble and in fact have called a strike which is affecting one or more mining districts. The situation seems to be about the same with these miners as with the railway shopmen, who acted without the approval of their officers, and in fact in disregard to the advice and opinion of those officials.

There is no denying, however, that trouble with the miners is in prospect, altho substantial advances in mining scales have been given in the past two years, and a contract made which does not expire until next April.

The time was when a contract between operators and miners for a definite period was considered binding by the miners and held practically inviolate for the period mentioned. But that time seems to have passed and a contract is good only so long as the men abide by its conditions, no matter what the date of expiration is supposed to be.

WEIGHT DISHONESTY AND HIGH LIVING COSTS

In discussing the interesting but threadbare subject of the high cost of living, the public is confronted by the unpleasant fact that weight dishonesty has a direct connection with the subject. It is a fact that the consumer often pays for a greater weight or a larger bulk of some foodstuffs than he actually receives. This "short weighting" does not apply only to foodstuffs but to other commodities which are accounted as necessities. Sometimes the short weighting is not the result of intention but of carelessness. In other instances there is the direct intention and the seller gives the buyer a few ounces less of the commodity purchased than the agreed price indicates.

There are no specific instances in mind and the above statements are made because they apply to every community where a few thousand people are gathered together and engage in daily buying and selling of commodities. The statement simply seeks to impress the fact that there should be some plan for guaranteeing to the people of Jacksonville correct weights and measures.

This is one of numerous questions which the city council should take up and some plan should be evolved for giving the public protection in this matter. An inspector of weights and measures might be appointed and a plan worked out by which such inspector would, for example, compel the weighing of any load of coal that he happened to see passing thru the streets.

Then the frequent inspection of scales in retail establishments and in coal yards would be beneficial to the public. Scales quite frequently get out of order without the knowledge of the merchant and without wrong intention he gives less to his patrons than they are paying for.

In the coal business the merchant who wishes to short weight his customer has a comparatively easy time of it, for a load of coal short a few hundred pounds does not give any surface indication of that fact, and once placed in a cellar or bin, cannot be removed for weighing.

It is no reflection on the coal men of Jacksonville nor upon merchants generally to say that the appointment of an inspector of weights and measures for Jacksonville would be an action beneficial to the people and the money would not be accounted as an expense, as it would make savings for the people.

Sometimes merchants deliberately make a low price on a commodity to attract customers and then protect themselves by short weight to make up the difference. Occasionally a merchant takes a contract at a lower price than good business justifies and relies upon his ability to occasionally get by with short weights in order to recoup himself.

These statements, as indicated, refer to no specific instances but simply serve to emphasize that in a community of this size a department of weights and measures would be well worth while.

WISCONSIN GOVERNOR ON COST OF LIVING

Gov. E. L. Philipp of Wisconsin issued the following proclamation:

"The high cost of living is a matter of deep concern in the minds of the people of our country. Prices for the necessities of life have reached a point where the wage earner and the man of moderate means may well begin to doubt his ability to supply his own wants and support his dependents.

"Notices of still further advances in the price of food, clothing and fuel are being mentioned by the daily press, which has caused the people to become thoroly aroused and resentment against this abnormal tendency is given expression in strikes and threatened strikes to an extent that there is great danger that all industry will cease and that millions of workers will be idle, which will end in disaster not only to them but to all the people regardless of what their occupation may be.

"There is a demand for increased wages upon the farm and in the industries, which has been generally conceded. It seems, however, that every increase in wages is immediately followed by an increase in the cost of living which absorbs the gain which the laboring man has made and leaves him where he was before the increase was granted. The system simply means a pyramiding of wages without a corresponding benefit to the recipient of the increase, and it is not difficult to understand that if the cost of living is going to continue to absorb every increase in wages made that we will soon reach the point where industry is impossible and the laboring man will lose his employment, which, under present conditions, would bring about a situation in our state and country that would be perilous to say the least.

"I appeal to the merchants, and trades people generally of Wisconsin to give this matter of the cost of food and other necessities of life their earnest and patriotic consideration. I fully appreciate that most commodities that are sold in the stores and shops of the state are purchased at high prices by those who deal with the consumer. I can also understand that by reason of the high cost of labor and other increased expenditures the cost of doing business, as it is generally stated, has very much increased. There is, however, much indication that seems to establish the fact that profiteering is quite generally engaged in and that there is a general disposition to charge prices that will yield abnormal profits.

"I wish to remind all dealers in merchandise and food that in the present state of the public mind it is an unwise policy to charge more than a reasonable profit for doing business and that if profiteering is persisted in the people will in self defense protect themselves by drastic legislation that will be harmful to business and will more than absorb any gain made during this period of reconstruction

"I call upon all the people to meet the problems that confront us now in the same patriotic spirit with which they met the problems of the war. The difficulties that we are in are the result of the war—in fact they may be said to be part of the war.

"I ask that labor remain calm and not engage in strikes. The remedy for our evils does not lie in enforced idleness. The relief must come from the government both national and state. Law can undo whatever law has contributed to the present situation, and I feel confident that the national government will act promptly in its effort to provide a remedy.

"During the war the state brought much food from the producer direct to the consumer and the machinery of the state can again be put in motion for the same purpose if it be found necessary or advantageous to do so under existing conditions.

"The state should not wish to interfere with the ordinary and well established methods of serving the public with merchandise and food supplies. On the other hand, it is clearly the duty of the state, in so far as it is within its power, to protect the people against unreasonable exactions, especially for those commodities which are usually referred to as the necessities of life.

"I sincerely hope that the warning that I am giving will be appreciated and that it will not be necessary to use the power of the state to prevent unreasonable profits, or, in other words, to stop profiteering.

SAWING WOOD

Old Wilhelm's busy sawing elm, all day his back's in labor bent and who shall rule his native realm he doesn't seem to care a cent. He doesn't seem to care a whoop what factions fall, what factions rise he's whacking wood behind his coop, and there all day the sawdust flies. Old Wilhelm has a crippltd arm, he has a shriveled, helpless paw; and I would give an upland farm to know just how he wields a saw. I'm sawing wood myself, these days, upon my rolling, mortgaged lands; and I'm equipped, like other jays, with husky arms, unblemished hands. When I have sawed an hour or two my wind is gone, my backbone creaks and I remark, "I guess I'm thru —I'll have to rest for seven weeks." Then to my cabin I repair, all tuckered out, my ribs pulled loose, and read in daily papers there how Wilhelm saws his cords of spruce. Oh, prithee, tell me how this king, who's lost his throne and jeweled hat, this relic with a crippled wing—how can he pull such stunts as that? For day I've plied a saw and ax and this to me seems amply clear: When Bill gets down to royal tacks, he doesn't saw a cord a year.

GOOD ROADS MEETING HELD AT MODESTO

Enthusiastic Meeting Held in the Interest of the P. P. H. & J. Highway—Local Citizens In Atendance.

The matter of good roads and the P. P. H. J. highway received a substantial impetus yesterday, when a deputation from this city, Franklin and Nortonville, went down to Modesto to attend a meeting in behalf of the good cause. From this city in George Wheelr's Studebaker John Snyder, Hon. J. J. Reeve, Eugene Pyatt and S. W. Nichols. V. R. Riley, president of the Morgan County Good Roads Association, took with them Henry Frisch and T. M. Tomlinson.

From Franklin were Marion Spires and Commissioner Charles N. Wyatt. From Nortonville John Miller, Clarence Dalton, Fletcher Seymour, John and James Lemon and Charles Dalton. Others came in from Carlinville, and immediate vicinity later on. The first named visitors were invited to the Comercial hotel conducted by Ernest Harmon, where an excellent meal was served.

Thriving Village.

Modesto is a thriving village of Macoupin county ,surrounded by a splendid territory. It suffered terribly in May, 1917, by a clcyone which devastated the north part of the town, destroying many houses and killing three people. It has recuperated very well, however, and is going ahead altho the terrible storm left many scars.

It has a Christian church, now without a pastor, a Methodist church, Rev. P. J. Rinehart, pastor; and a Baptist church, Rev. Roy Marsh, pastor. The school house has four rooms and is not much of a building, but bonds have been voted for a new one. Miss Ethel Dyer of White Hall is the principal, and a gentleman whose name could not be learned is the assistant. Miss Huson of Palmyra, Miss Ross of Palmyra, and Miss Wilson are the assistant teachers.

There are Odd Fellows, Masonic and Knights of Pythias organizations, all in good condition, and they expect to have a farmers institute there in October. There is a flourishing state bank of Modesto of which L. G. Brown, brother of W. T. Brown of this city, is the capable president, and R. R. Smith, the gentlemanly cashier.

It has a capital of $25,000, and deposits ranging around $300,000 There are general merchandise stores, one conducted by Alexander Nevins, and one by R. R. Conlee; two hardware stores, one by Nathan Walkington, and one by Fletcher & Sons. Lumber is sold by W. Y. Staley, and a garage is managed by John Turner, and the Duncan Co., conducts a grain business.

There is a neat little public square, well shaded, and much used. Two carloads of oil have been put on the streets to good advantage. The C., P. & St. L. R. R. passes thru the place, and Frank Marlow is the local agent, and the people are all anxious for the time when freight trains will again be running.

Meeting in Church.

The meeting was held in the Methodist church, which is a very neat and attractive place, been built since the cyclone, and a credit to the society. Mr. Smith introduced Clarence Dalton as the president of the P. P. & H. J. trail, and that gentleman with suitable remarks took the chair, explaning what good work they expected to do and the importance of the enterprise.

Various speakers followed, the first one being Hon. J. J. Reeve of Jacksonville, who emphasized the value of good roads which are very important in a country like ours, where the excellent soil makes traveling very difficult in wet weather.

If the roads are neglected everything stagnates. It is noticeable that when men can get their produce to market, times are good and everything is prosperous, and the price of land is materially advanced when the highways are passable.

Several Good Addresses.

Vincent Riley, president of the Morgan County Good Roads association, told how much had been accomplished and he hoped to se a great deal more, a beginning had only ben made so far, and he assured the people that Morgan county would be behind every movement which would do anything to improve the roads. He was glad that the proposed trail would pass thru Jacksonville and hoped that it would connect many towns with our city.

Charles S. Magill, county commissioner, mentioned the good work that had already been accomplished, and the improved public sentiment regarding the P. P. & H. J. trail.

Charles N. Wyat, county commissioner, assured the people that Morgan county would stand behind everything done for good roads.

Henry Frisch, president of the Jacksonvile Chamber of Commerce, said good roads were built by the Romans with slave labor, and that nation was noted for that business, and many of their roads are in existence today. With improved machinery, we may now make roads faster than they did in those early times, and a co-operative spirit will accomplish great things.

Eugene Pyatt said there is a great talk about "back to the farm" but give a boy a good automobile and good roads to use it on and he will have no disposition to leave the farm whatever.

George Wheeler, candidate for county commissioner, was greatly in favor of anything that would improve the roads.

S. W. Nichols spoke and then T. M. Tomlinson urged the matter of good roads. He said in returning from St. Louis by auto he went 12 miles out of his way in order to get good roads.

He said good roads meant better houses, better farms and better everything.

As the weather was so threatening the Morgan visitors felt it unwise to remain longer, and with much regret were dismissed by the chairman and started home. Mr. Wheeler made the trip of 32 miles in an hour and 20 minutes, most of the way thru the rain, bringing his people safely home all right.

MORGAN COUNTY FARM TOPICS

The grain situation so far as many of the elevators in the county are concerned, has not improved during recent days. However, the greater part of wheat threshing is done. Thomas Cain, manager of the Arnold Farmers' Elevator Co. and the Orleans Farmers' Grain Co., said yesterday that both of these elevators are full and have been so for a number of days. The situation seems to be about the same with all the elevators on the Wabash.

Mr. Cain was able to secure one car for Arnold yesterday, mainly because the elevator there was carrying four or five thousand bushels of wheat above its normal capacity. The railroad officials explained that just at present the railroad administration considers it a dangerous matter to load a large amount of wheat, even if the cars are available. The freight service has been so interrupted that to load a great number of cars with wheat means an extra hazard for the railroad in possible losses by fire or losses which are the result of delays in transportation.

Loaded cars of wheat set out in the railroad switch yards for days are subject to greater possibilities of loss than like cars which are moved forward promptly from the place of origin to tne market.

The old elevator structure at Arnold has a capacity of 13,000 or 14,000 bushels and this capacity was more than doubled recently by the building of a concrete tower. This is a circular structure which has the appearance of a silo. It was erecttd just west of the main structure of re-enforced concrete at a total cost of approximately $7,000.

As a matter of fact, the construction work has not been finished altho the big container is already full of grain. It is divided into three compartments, equipped with the necessary dumping and loading machinery.

At Orleans the company owns an all concrete elevator and it has a capacity of 25,000 bushels. One advantage that the concrete elevators have over the other type is the lesser danger from fire. Some of these elevators carry no insurance, while others have a few thousand, as they figure the fire risk as quite small.

Mr. Cain in answer to a question explained yesterday that the U. S. Grain corporation is now allowing elevator men 7-20 of a cent per week per bushel on wheat in storage because of the delay in transportation. This delay is causing the elevator operators to carry the shrinkage on the grain and Mr. Cain estimates that the allowance of 7-20 of a cent is not large enough to prevent a certain amount of loss.

In recent years the number of elevators in the country has increased quite materially and this was fortunate indeed, in view of the heavy crop last year and the increased acreage this year.

STILL SHORT OF GAS.

The gasoline situation remains unchanged in Jacksonville. The Standard Oil Company, hauling by motor truck from Winchester, delivered 600 gallons to the C. N. Priest Garage yesterday noon. This amount was sold out soon after two o'clock. A similar shipment is expected at the Priest Garage this noon. James S. Alkire reecived no gasoline during the day.

A GOOD WHEAT YIELD.

Bert Fitzsimmons, renting the farm of his wife's mother, Mrs. Eva Megginson, near Woodson, had a field of forty acres of wheat that yielded 25 bushels to the acre and it graded number one. Mr. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Megginson both feel well pleased with the results of that field. The wheat was a bearded, hard variety of what name Mrs. Megginson was not aware.

CORP. HAUCK HOME AGAIN

A welcome arrival in the city yesterday was Corporal L. P. Hauck who responded to his country's call almost as soon as war was declared by the U. S. He was first in the 346th Infantry and was later made criminal investigator or detective in the M. P. division. He wears two service stripes and the emblem of the 87th division from which he was discharged. He was in a great many places of unpronouncable name in France, but was too late to get to the firing line. He is looking fine and is glad to be at home again.

SAW THE SHOOTING.

W. T. Brown received a letter from Messrs. Guyette and Baldwin who started a day or two ago for Michigan, as was noted in the Journal. They were in Peoria and were right behind the automobile containing two of the sons of the proprietor of the Keystone Iron Works and saw the shooting which riddled the car and mortally wounded one occupant and seriously hurt others. They said the car was all spattered with blood and represented a frightful spectacle. The excitement ran high and there was much bad feeling.

BLACKBURN ELEVATOR BURST FRIDAY NIGHT

Great Pressure of Grain Shattered One Side of Bin—Loss Will Not Be Heavy if Freight Cars Can Be Obtained.

As a direct result of freight congestion the elevator of the F. J. Blackburn Grain Co., located on East College avenue, burst about 9 o'clock Friday night. A great stream of wheat flowed out upon the nearby ground, making a pile of nearly 8,000 bushels. The bin in which the wheat was stored had been constructed for corn, but because of the demands for speace and the difficulty of securing cars for shipping wheat, this bin had been lined with canvas and used for wheat storage. The elevator is carrying several thousand more bushels than the normal capacity.

Edward Tuman, who was passing along College avenue at the time of the accident, heard the crackling sound and the splitting of boards, followed by the rush of grain. People in the neighborhood also heard the noise and Mr. Blackburn, together with his associates, Harry Furry and A. E. Williamson, were notified.

Prompt measures were taken to cover the grain, which was spread over considerable area, with canvas to protect it from the rain. The situation was also explained to the several railroad agents here and Division Freight Agent E. S .Horton of the Burlington at Beardstown was called and promised to use every effort to give relief today with empty cars. If the cars can be secured the main wheat bins of the elevator can be emptied. This will give opportunity for shoveling up the wheat from the ground and placing it in these bins where it can be dried and the dirt and cinders removed.

By this procedure Mr. Blackburn hopes to get by without any considerable loss, except for the damage of several hundred dollars to the elevator building. It is believed that in this emergency the railroad officials will co-operate by furnishing the cars that are so urgently needed to avoid a loss.

REDS TAKE TWO FROM GIANTS

Defeat Virtually Puts New York Out of Pennant Race—Call Police When Crowd Throws Bottles at Cincinnati Players.

New York, Aug. 15.—The New York Giants virtually were put out of the National League race here today, when the Cincinnati Reds defeated them in both games of a double header winning the series, four games out of six. Cincinnati won the first game by a score of 4 to 3 and the second game 4 to 0. The Reds, as a result of their visit increased their lead to six and one half games. It was estimated that 40,000 saw the game and that 20,000 were turned away.

For the first time in years, the police were called into the park. They came in after the first game, when bottles had been thrown at Cincinnati players. The crowd surged on the field and Center Fielder Roush was completely enveloped. City and special police then pushed back the crowd and after an intermission the game was finished under ground rules.

Shortly after the game started, a steel railing against which the incoming spectators were pressing, gave away, thirty persons falling twenty feet to the concrete stand below. Fifteen of the twenty five who required medical attention were taken to hospitals. One victim was reported tonight to be dying from a fracture of the skull and internal injuries.

Eller's hitting and pitching won the first game for Cincinnati. He pitched a strong game and hit a home run with two men on base.

Ray Fisher, former New Lork American pitcher, shut out the Giants in the second game. It was the fifth time that New York had been shut out this season. Benton also pitched a strong game and all of Cincinnati's hits were bunched in the sixth inning. The scores:

Big Lot of HAY FEVER JOKES

But Kentucky Man Says—"People Who Belong to Hay Fever Solony are Kidding Themselves."

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINETY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city.

"But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is sso easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcine and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and snuff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show up is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists" who dispense Mentholized Arcine say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin.

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint.

'7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

If Your Nerves Are Shaky Because of Over-Indulgence in Tobacco or Alcohol or by Excess of Any Kind, Bio-Feren is What You Need Right Away.

Don't grow old before your time, don't let nervousness wreck your happiness or chances in life. The man with strong, steady nerves is full of vigor, energy, ambition and confidence.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and keen mind by putting your blood and nerves in first-class shape with mighty Bio-Feren, a new discovery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor will in just a few days arise with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition.

All you have to do is to take two Bio-Feren tablets after each meal and one at bedtime—7 a day for 7 days—then reduce to one after each meal until all are gone.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't doubled, if your mind isn't keener and eyes brighter, if you don't feel twice as ambitious as before, any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

Bio-Feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, run-down, weak, anaemic men and women ever offered and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

INDUSTRIAL UNREST STILL WIDESPREAD

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Industrial unrest is still widespread, new strikes number many thousands of workers, the agitation over prices conditions continues, accompanied by numerous seizures of food in warehouses or stores and the prices of many staples, especially in speculative markets are still unsettled. On the other hand, however, there seems to be less tension in the situation as a whole, the stock markets appear to have reached something like an equilibrium, the shop men's strike with all that it involved in the way of checking the current of the country's trade and industrial life has been couse of some of the weakness in prices, as, for instance, in corn and hogs, has been aided by the better trend of crop reports and finally, the great mass of trade reports while testifying to the considerable unsettlement ruling, particularly in markets for foods, are almost unanimous in showing that distributive trade in many lines has not been greatly checked and indeed is of a very full volume for an ordinarily quiet mid-summer period. Weekly bank clearings, $8,077,606,000."

DEVOTION
(From Life)

Tall she was, and pale—the exquisite pallor of a fine, white skin Her black garments served only to make her pallor more attractive—garments that draped the lissome curves of her superb young form, revealing as much beauty as they concealed.

She glanced neither to the right nor to the left, nor was she conscious of any scrutiny. Her large dark eyes, wistful in vision, gazed through, beyond and above; her face held that look of flawless purity with which Leonardo has vested his Madonnas.

About her neck hung a chain of gold and amethyst, the pendant cross of which was clasped between her tenuous fingers. Her lips moved silently, unceasingly in earnest dedication and zeal. It seemed as though she poured her very soul from out those silent, moving lips, awesome in their ceaseless rythm. Was this devotion—devotion for some well beloved—some cherished heart torn from her breast?

No, she was chewing gum.

STOCK MARKET DRIFTS AIMLESSLY

At No Time Since the Reaction Has Trading Been so Obviously Professional.

New York, Aug. 15.—The aimless drift of today's dull and uninteresting stock market session was the combined outcome to a large degree of tomorrow's solidity and the firer marked absence of public interests.

At no period since the reaction of the past fortnight has the charge of the trading been so restricted as to volume and variety of issues dealt in.

Local tractions were almost the only issues that reflected existing or impending conditions, weakening on small offerings induced by the more acute stage in the labor situation. An irregular opening was soon succeeded by heaviness, this in turn giving way to moderate firmness at midday. On rather free selling in the final hour many moderate gains were cancelled, U. S. Steel being among the few notable exceptions at a gain of one point. Sales amounted to 735,000 shares.

Bonds in general were heavy, the liberty group alone holding steady. Total sales (par value) were $11,6,50. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

BUYING CAUSES UPSWING IN CORN

Indications That Rural Holders Would Withhold Offerings Lead to Buying by Commission Houses.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Indications that a result of yesterday's sharp break in prices rural holders of grain would attempt as much as practicable to withhold offerings led to much commission house buying and caused an upswing in prices.

The closing quotations were firm 2 1-4c net higher, with Sept. $1.85 to $1.85 1-4 and December $1.45 5-8 to $1.45 3-4. Oats gained 1 13c to 1 3-4c and provisions 12c to 75c. Advances in thecorn market were preceded by sharp declines which carried the May delivery down to the lowest point yet for the crop. This setback was largely due to an accumulation of selling orders before trading began and to government activity in prossing measures to reduce the cost of living. Besides hog values had again broken sharply and foreign exchange was also heavy. Shorts who were in a position to collect profits started buying, however, and were followed by commission houses when evidence multiplied that country solders did not propose to rush shipments at a sicrifice. Activeexport demand for oats tended further to give corn a lift.

Oats showed independent strength. idding was urgent for the kinds needed by Europe. Buying that was ascribed topackers rallied provisions despite big new cuts in the value of hogs.

SAYS PACKERS SHOULD NOT DISCRIMINATE

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler in the packing wage arbitration hearing today advised packers they should not discriminate against non-citizens in employing workers. The ruling was made after union leaders had asserted American basic industries were favoring American citizens.

The judge's action followed admission by E. N. Elliott, employment manager of Libby, McNeill & Libby, that in re-hiring workers preference was given to American citizens.

LOCAL SHOPMEN WILL RESUME WORK MONDAY

Receive Orders from Chicago Yesterday to Return to Work—Vote to Go Back Monday Rather Than Today.

At a meeting held at the Trades and Labor Assembly hall yesterday afternoon the men employed at the local C., P. & St. L. car shops voted to return to work Monday.

Official notification was received by the shop men from District 29, Federated Crafts of Chicago, requesting them to return to work. The Chicago organization represents shop men of twenty-nine or thirty different railroad systems.

On account of today being a short day, it is customary to only work until noon on Saturdays, it was not thought advisable to attempt to start work this morning. By a majority vote the men decided to return to work Monday morning.

It was stated by a local shop man last night that the men employed by the C., P. & St. L. at Springfield will resume work this morning. He was not certain regarding the Alton men at Bloomington, whether they would return to work this morning or wait until Monday.

IN RAILROAD CIRCLES

Checks for the Alton section men arrived yesterday and were distributed. This was the second batch of checks to come, the first going to round house men in Bloomington Wednesday. It is expected that checks for other departments wil be down from Chicago within a few days.

—(o)—

Despite the tremendous travel, passenger trains on the Alton, have been uniformly on time recently, altho the Limited has been delayed on some occasions on account of heavy trains. The volume of business is so great that the capacity of the Alton equipment is being given a severe test.

—(o)—

Wabash workmen were back again Friday morning and everything was going as smoothly as possible after the somewhat deranged freight schedules and make-shift forces. Freight traffic will not be back to normal for several days, altho freights will begin to move at once.

—(o)—

It is understood that a general walkout thruout the country is being prepared for Sept. 2 unless the government raises wages. This strike, it is understood, will affect all branches of the mechanical end of the railroads and will not be a railroad here and there but will be general. In the last strike there were many who were not in favor if it because it was not national.

—(o)—

Vote of the general strike will be counted Aug. 24 and it is believed that the vote will be overwhelmingly in favor of the walkout.

RAINBOWS LOST GAME AT CHAPIN

The rainbow team was defeated in a very hard played game Thursday afternoon at the Chapin Horse Show. The game was exciting and interesting from start to finish. The locals lost by errors only. Every player worked very hard all through the game.

Angelo who twirled the first six innings for the locals was successful in allowing the Chapin boys very few hits. Angelo, tho only an amateur, is showing up very nicely in his work on the mound.

Patrick stepped in the box in the seventh inning and shut the Chapin boys out entirely, not even allowing one to see first base. Clark caught an excellent game and had the Chapin boys hugging first base for fear of his second base throw. Several of them tried it but were unsuccessful by several feet.

The infield, for the locals, and also the outfield, played a good game all the way through with the exception of a few bad throws which were very costly and meant the losing of the game.

The game was umpired fairly and the Chapin boys gave us a square deal all the way through.

Christopher and Patrick were the star hitters for the locals. Christopher scored twice and Patrick once.

The line up for the locals was as follows: Patrick, Angelo, rf; Baptist, cf; Anders lf; Christopher, ss; DeFreitas, 3b; Franz 2b; Wheeler, 1b; Clark, c; Angelo, Patrick, p.

The score:

Jacksonville	100 001 010—3

OWNERSHIP OF FORD APPEARS IN DOUBT

Car in Fred Middendorf's Possession Said to Have Past — St. Louisan Fails to Identify Property.

Fred Middendorf, residing between Bluffs and Chapin, is the possessor of a Ford touring car, the original ownership of which seems in doubt. In other words, it is claimed that the car has a past, that it is a stolen car.

Mr. Middendorf purchased the car from C. P. Taylor of Bluffs who is employed at the Peake and Bush Garage in Winchester. The Peake and Bush garage people had received the car in trade from a man named Evans, who can in turn show where he got it.

There is a number on the engint and Mr. Middendorf secured his auto license giving the engine number as shown on the engine at the present time. It appears to be the original number and does not show any traces of having been changed or tampered with.

About two weeks ago Constable Ross of Alsey with two men from St. Louis, came to Mr. Middendorf's and after an inspection of the car stated that they believed it was the car which had been stolen from St. Louis. Some days ago they returned with the St. Louisan whose car had disapeared but he was unable to identify the car as his property. He had placed a certain mark on his Ford which was not discernable on the car in Mr. Middendorf's possession.

Efforts to reach the Peake and Bush Garage at Winchester last night were in vain, so that a further history of the car beyond Mr. Evans is at this time unavailable.

Mr. Middendorg stated last night that he was perfectly willing to give the car up whenever the rightful owner appeared and proved it as his property by properly identifying it. He is fully protected financially by Peake and Bush who will return him his purchase price in case the car is shown to be the property of another.

GUS PHALEN RETURNS FROM OVERSEAS

Had Spent Nearly Year With A. E. F. — Was Enroute to Front When Armistice Was Signed.

Gus Phalen returned Friday night from Camp Grant where he received his discharge from the army Wednesday August 13, after serving nearly a year with the A. E. F., in France.

Mr. Phalen left Jacksonville in May, 1918, and went to Camp Shelby at Hattiesburg, Miss., where he remained until September when he started to the coast with the 38th Division. The Division sailed from New York Oct. 2, 1918, and after arriving in France was split up and a large number of the men were transferred to other divisions as replacements. In this shake-up Mr. Phalen was transferred to the 5th Machine Gun Battalion, Second Division, and was under shell fire going up to the front when armistice was signed on Nov. 11, 1918.

After the armistice went into effect the division was sent to the Rhine as a part of the Army of Occupation, and Mr. Phalen's outfit was stationed for several months at Coblenz. He landed in New York August 3, and took part in the parade of the Second Division in New York City.

At Camp Mills, casual companies were formed of men in the Division who were enlisted for the emergency, and Mr. Phalen was sent to Camp Grant for discharge.

He spent Thursday in Peoria.

USE OF SILOS GAINS ON AMERICAN FARMS

Sure Supply of Feed for Cattle Thru These Structures.

The silo is rapidly becoming recognized as a necessary part of the Minnesota farmer's equipment. A Minnesota farm without a silo, at least in the corn area, is no longer up to date. The rapid adoption of the silo is accounted for by recognition of its advantages. These advantages are summarized by A. D. Wilson, extension director of the Minnesota College of Agriculture, as follows:

If corn is cut at the proper stage and put into a good silo, the whole corn plant is eaten.

Silage is more convenient to feed than is any other rough feed commonly used on the farm.

Silage is both palatable and succulent.

The addition of a succulent feed to a ration increases the digestibility of the dry feed eaten.

With a silo it is possible to save corn that might otherwise, owing to immaturity, be largely wasted.

The silo not only provides excellent feed for winter time but furnishes a means of keeping more for summer use feed of high quality.

The silo furnishes almost a sure supply feed, as there is no surer crop in Minnesota than corn.

SANGAMON FARMER SAYS LAND WILL REACH $1,000

F. F. Ide of Sangamon County, a well known farmer, says that he finds farming profitable on $500 acre land even tho he feeds his crop to the cattle and hogs.

Recently he was offered $500 an acre for his Sangamon county farm and refused it and an 80 acre farm near him brought $540. He says that land will soon sell for $1,000 per acre.

Last year, he says, all of his land under cultivation brought in a crop that was valued at $73 an acre. His corn yielded 80 bushels, wheat 42 and potatoes 250 bushels an acre.

GO TO LAKE MATANZAS FOR WEEK END VISIT

Misses Katherine Gustafson and Goldie Elliott are to go to Lake Matanzas this morning for a week end visit with a party of friends.

BAD ROADS COSTLY

Increased freight rates, of course, mean higher cost of living. That is so plain nobody thinks of disputing it. Another factor of exactly the same sort, which is often overlooked in discussions, is the high cost of transportation, caused by bad roads.

We are so used to rough roads and muddy roads that it hardly occurs to us that they enter into the cost of living. But they do. The more it costs to get food from the farms to the towns, the higher the cost of living is bound to be.

Any comprehensive plan to keep the cost of food to the consumer at the lowest possible figures must involve a nationwide movement for good roads.
